RE: Freedom of Information Act Request 20-02

Dear Mr. Amarel:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated and received by us on October 7, 2019, in which you request:

“All emails sent to, from, or copied to: Jason Kearns, from January 1, 2016 to Present Day containing any of the following non-case-sensitive key-string "immigration".”

After thoroughly searching our records, we did not locate any records responsive to your request. Therefore, the disposition of your FOIA request is “no records.”

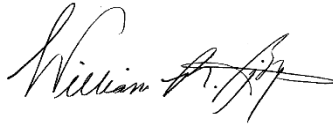

If you are not satisfied with the response to your request, you may file an administrative appeal. If you decide to do so, your appeal must be received within 90 days of the date of this letter. It should be addressed to the Chairman, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, and clearly indicate both on the envelope and in the letter that it is a “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” It should clearly state the grounds upon which you believe this denial of access to be in error. For further information on appeal procedures, see 19 C.F.R. § 201.18, attached.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:

Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, MD 20740; E-mail: ogis@nara.gov
Telephone: 202-741-5770; Fax: 202-741-5769; Toll-free: 1-877-684-6448.

If you have any questions, need assistance, or would like to discuss any aspect of your request, please feel free to call me at 202-205-2595.

Sincerely,
